THE MESSAGE. - Senator Mason, in reply to an unbecoming fling at the President by Mr. HALK, said:

"The honorable Senator from New Hampwhire legislates himself that this is the last methinge which is to emanate from the present executive, and therefore he is disposed to let it pass with less severity of comment. He may well felicitate himself ; for, if I do not mistake humanity, the bold truth, the patriotic and manly tone of that message, will perpetrate the northern heart and cause it to throb with pulsation and purposes not exactly in unison with those of the S-nator and the party with which River Matters.
